FINAL MASTER OF MEDICINE (ANAESTHESIOLOGY) EXAMINATION
19 – 26 MARCH 2009

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must have completed at least 34 months of recognized Anaesthesia training at the point of the examination. A training/examination guide is available in softcopy from the Division of Graduate Medical Studies (DGMS).

All doctors who have undergone training in recognized Singapore hospitals and who have registered with DGMS are required to submit together with their application, their log book.

All doctors who have undergone training in any foreign country, must have their training hospitals recognized/approved by ANZCA. All current ANZCA approved hospitals are listed on this website: <http://www.anzca.edu.au/trainees/hospital-accreditation/>.

APPLICATION

Application forms are obtainable from DGMS's office or downloadable from the DGMS website www.med.nus.edu.sg/dgms. The fees and certified true copies of supporting documents must be submitted together with the application form.

Foreign applicants may submit certified true copies of the documents upon application for admission into the examination. However, they must bring along the original documents for verification upon their arrival in Singapore. Those who fail to present their original documents for verification will be disqualified. DGMS may reject any application submitted without examination fee. DGMS is not obliged to give reasons for unsuccessful applications.
